Mayor Proposes New City Budget Of $3.5 Million

A 1971-72 city budget of $3,079,253—an increase of $81,224 over the total appropriation finally approved by the city council last year—was proposed this week by Mayor Donald Partney.

While the mayor's proposed budget, which usually is changed extensively by city council members before it is adopted, is considerably higher than the final appropriation figure adopted for the current 1970-71 year it is $648,916 higher than the budget figure originally proposed by Mayor Partney early in 1970—before the council made its changes.

The recommended appropriation indicates an almost certain substantial boost in budget items this year since the mayor's recommended budget is based on minimum expenditures. There has been no instance in recent years in which the city council revised the mayor's budget to a figure less than that recommended by the mayor.

Mayor Partney said part of the increase in his appropriation bill this year is due to an item of $100,000 for construction of a new city street department garage, $45,000 for a fire truck ordered during the current fiscal year and scheduled for delivery after the new budget is effective, and $40,000 for another new fire truck to be ordered during the 1971-72 fiscal year.

Some Smaller Increases
A number of small increases in appropriations for various services, supplies and equipment also are included in his proposed budget, the mayor said. These include an item of $5,000 as a "beginning" fee for engineering work on the city's secondary sewage treatment plant and interceptor sewer system which must be under an audit by Environmental Protection Agency officials by Dec. 31, 1973.

It has been customary in past years for the mayor to submit a proposed budget early in the year. The city council then drafts a budget of its own, but in recent years has not completed the job before late July. Statutory deadline for adoption of the municipal budget is July 31.

The tentative appropriation estimates sewer maintenance costs at $28,905, compared with the $133,540 in the 1970-71 budget.

Street Costs Up
The mayor's budget also fixes expenditures of the Street Department at $445,211, up from the $416,256 in the current budget.

Police Department expenditures are projected at $477,924, compared with $468,739 in the 1970-71 budget, and Fire De-

McKinley Bridge Has Profit Loss

An audit report for the McKinley Toll Bridge was received by the City of Venice this week and was presented to the city council Tuesday night.

The report, prepared by the certified public accountant firm of Bert H. Alliman & Co., showed that by Sept. 30, 1970, end of the 1969-70 fiscal year, Venice had netted $2,783,600 in Series A Bridge bonds since the first interest payments began in 1959, but payment on Series B bonds was defaulted for the fifth consecutive time.

Net income from the bridge amounted to $252,463 for the fiscal year with revenue showing a $75,752 decrease from bridge revenue of the previous year.

The total number of vehicles crossing the bridge in the fiscal year was 2,972,588, compared to 3,196,284 in the fiscal ending Sept. 30, 1969. Total collections amounted to $902,348 in the period ending Sept. 30, 1970, compared with $978,000 the previous fiscal year.

The council also issued $5,000 in replacement McKinley Bridge bonds for a New York bank which last year bonds. The bonds are secured against double payment in the event the original bonds should reappear.

The council was informed that letters from State Rep. Horace Calvo and State Senator Sam M. Vadalabene have been received promising legislative action to split the Madison County portion of the St. Clair County sector of the East Side Levee and Sanitary District.

Vadalabene's letter said, "I will do my best to assist Representative Horace Calvo and Leland Kennedy in securing passage of Resolution 771-2 (bill to split the district) in the House and as a Senate sponsor will try my best to see that it is passed out of the Senate."

In other business the council gave approval to the Electric Co. to place an anchor and guy wire under the McKinley Bridge on the Missouri side.

Disbursements for the city's total $35,598 and the city's cash balance at the end of the fiscal year ending March 31, 1971, which projects a deficit of $2,531,600 in the trust indenture depreciation reserve fund. This is in addition to a cumulative deficit of nearly $3,375,000 in the same fund since

Festival Funding Sought

The executive board of the Mississippi River Festival met in emergency session Monday afternoon and agreed to explore "every possible source of funding" for the 1971 Festival.

The council was informed that last week's 43 vote by the Board of Trustees of Southern Illinois University not to appropriate the $150,000 needed to fund the festival was a setback. The festival has been held for the last two summers on the SIU-Southwest campus.

Peter Pastreich, managing director of the Festival, said the board members exhibited "a great deal of determination to make the Festival an on-going event for the metropolitan area."

"We have received many encouraging signs of support from civic and political leaders on both sides of the river, various student groups, and the public-at-large. We plan to work very hard not to disappoint the thousands of people who have enjoyed the first two MRF seasons and have been looking forward to this one," Mr. Pastreich said.

He pointed out that the Festival faced a similar plight last year when SIU trustees rejected a request for funds, then later agreed to underwrite $75,000 of the Festival deficit, with a matching amount to be raised in a fund campaign.

Seek Financing
"We hope this year to locate a funding source that will assure the Festival's future as an annual significant cultural affair for the Bi-State area," Pastreich said.

After the SIU board rejected the request for festival funds, Trustee William Allen, Normal, suggested that efforts be made to obtain funds from the Illinois legislature which in the past has provided funds to support Chicago Symphony Orchestra programs.

John Rendleman, chancellor of SIU-SW, expressed disappointment at the board's rejection of Festival support. He said the festival has "enriched and enhanced the experience of our students and persons in the area." He noted that the festival has been "a cultural and artistic success."

He and some members of Mississippi River Festival believe it is too late to obtain funds from the legislature in the current General Assembly session.

Johnston Gets Engineer Post for $7.5 Million Plant, Sewer Project

By MARION BARTOSIAK Press-Record Staff Writer

Levee District Passes Record High Tax Levy

A record high tax levy of $1,375,775—an increase of $134,050 over the 1970 levy—was approved at a special meeting of the East Side Levee and Sanitary District in East St. Louis yesterday.

The new tax levy is for the 1971 fiscal year, Jan. 1 through Dec. 31, and will be the basis for extension of levee district taxes to be collected in 1972.

At the same time the board of trustees approved a resolution authorizing issuance of anticipation warrants to finance levee district operations. The resolution permits the district to sell anticipation warrants in an amount up to 75% of anticipated tax collections, or $942,950 for maintenance costs in excess of regular project costs, $140,000 for election expenses.

The new tax levy includes $52,850 for project operating costs, $141,025 for administration, $70,000 for the police department, $49,050 for the engineering department and $342,950 for maintenance costs in excess of regular project costs, $140,000 for election expenses.

A levy of $5,000 was approved for the Municipal Retirement Fund and other levy extensions were $14,000 for auditing and $10,000 for liability insurance.

Last year's levy totaled $1,241,725, including $395,250 in operation costs and $55,000 in the retirement fund.

Columbia, Mo., Airport Site Is Missouri Choice

Washington. Cervantes has joined with Illinois Governor Richard B. Ogilvie in plans for development of a second major metropolitan airport on the Illinois side of the river.

First Priority
The engineering report gives site priority to a location in Monroe and St. Clair counties, about four miles southwest of Columbia and about four miles north of Waterloo, a location which the report says is in a relatively sparsely populated area of 16 miles from downtown St. Louis and 19 miles from Washington University.

A second preference is given to a site near Cedar Hill, Mo., in central Jefferson County, Mo. While the report points out that there is less development required at the Cedar Hill location, it is 33 miles from downtown St. Louis and 29 miles from Washington University which is considered the approximate center of passenger origin in the metropolitan area.

The report lists the third preference as a site near the intersection of the Missouri and Illinois state lines, about 15 miles from St. Louis and 29 miles from Washington University.

There will be no parking on 26th street from Iowa Street east to the alley for 155 feet. Stop signs will replace yield signs on 26th Street and Delmar Avenue.

Stop signs are to be removed at Wabash Avenue and Johnson Road where traffic signals are to be installed.

City Awards Contracts to Resurface, Improve Roosevelt, Marshall Avenues

Two motor fuel tax contracts to resurface sections of Granite City streets were awarded to low bidders Monday night by the City Council.

A. H. Seibold Co. received a contract on a bid of $89,536 to resurface Roosevelt Avenue from Rock Road to the Great River Road. Other bidders were G. H. Sternberg, $92,258, and Packard Co., $125,592. The cost estimate was $93,175.

Sternberg was awarded the contract to resurface Marshall Avenue from St. Clair to Leonard Avenue on a bid of $2,072. Seibold bid $24,403 and Packard bid $41,650. The estimate was $25,625.

Sewer Break Delay
After voicing complaints of delays in repairing a sewer break at Faith Avenue, Elec. Wayne and Warren Avenues, apparently caused by the reluctance of property owner to permit access by his yard by the contractor, the council directed Leon Seibold to take legal action.

The A. H. Seibold Co., the contractor, has informed the city that the work cannot continue unless it is authorized to work beyond an existing 10-foot easement. Alderman Dawes complained that the Cloverview area flooded again during Sunday's rain and insisted that proper advice be obtained to resolve the long-standing problem. He said that it would be cleared up along with the Dorey Slough drainage project.

He also asked who is to be responsible for the damage during repairs to a sewer break at Lynch and Stearns Avenues, and Mayor Partney assured that the property would be restored by the contractor after the weather permits.

In other business the council adopted an ordinance requiring a $5 inspection fee for sewer tap-ons payable at the time of application, in addition to the regular tap-on fees.

Granted a 20-cent hourly pay raise for office helpers, bringing the salary range from $2 to $2.50 per hour.

Approved a $700 settlement in a suit which had been filed for the retirement from the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, effective March 1, following 40 years in the field of labor-management relations.

Approved a request by the American Legion Auxiliary to set memorial poppies on May 21-22 in the business districts.

Council Grows Over Petition Favoring Dogs

A petition to extend the 48-hour holding period for dogs at the Granite City animal shelter was submitted to the Granite City Council Monday night.

A request to extend the period 5 to 10 days to permit adoption by the public drew immediate criticism from Mayor Partney and some of the aldermen.

Alderman Dallas said that "if anyone wants to adopt them, they should pay for rabies shots and be charged a small fee."

He said the matter would be discussed at a committee meeting.

Alderman Nonn added, "We better clean up the dogs in Granite City first. We're not getting service. The dogs are."

all over the street. We can do it by getting the county to come out and do it for a fee."

Another problem was presented by Alderman Parkey: "We can't find muzzles for small dogs. Consider this before we start enforcing this ordinance."

Alderman Whitmer commented that "dog owners should keep their dogs tied up and not let the neighbors run them. I don't think the muzzle law will solve the problem."

Mayor Partney said, "The kennel is full and running over most of the time and we can't keep them any longer. Too many kids are running bit."

Alderman Banerich concluded, "How do you define a dog lover—anyone who will leave his dog there 24 hours is not a dog lover." The petition was filed.

'Grassland' Lecture At SIU-SW Friday

Jim Wilson, author, explorer, and conservationist, will present an illustrated lecture at the Southern Illinois University, Southwestern Friday entitled "Grassland." The lecture will begin at 4:30 p.m. in Lovejoy Library auditorium. The public is invited, admission free.

A leading interpreter of the American prairies, Wilson and his wife own and operate the Wilson Seed Farms at Polk, Neb. They have been prime movers in the use of prairie grasses in the central and eastern states for "people pastures"—landscaping, recreational use, wildlife cover and the general improvement of the environment.

Wilson's lecture tells the story of the origin of the prairie—grass and animals in prehistoric times—conquest by the pioneers—the dustbowl—beginning of understanding—struggles of the first conservationists—return of the prairie grasses—rescue of the ravaged land—the modern science of grass planting and management for livestock feed, soil and water conservation, wildlife habitat, recreational use and natural beautification.

The lecture is co-sponsored by Enactis, a new SIU-SW organization of persons interested in promoting education and action on pollution and planning problems of the environment, and the Artist-Lecture Series committee.

Nameoki OKs Sale of $15,000 Tax Warrants

Insurance of $15,000 in tax anticipation warrants to supplement the General Assistance Fund was authorized Monday evening by the Nameoki Town Board of Auditors.

Borrowing funds through anticipation warrants is required under an Illinois Department of Public Aid ruling that all monies allotted to township GA accounts must be expended prior to receiving additional state funds. Supervisor Harry Briggs related, when necessity for issuing anticipation warrants was questioned by Auditor Douglas Teator.

Commenting on the supervisor's explanation, Teator said, "I think we should pass the resolution, if necessary, but I believe we also should have some knowledge on what is going on with funds in the General Assistance Fund."

Accessibility of records to board members, pertaining to distribution of general assistance funds, has been questioned by the auditors on previous occasions.

A capacity crowd overflowed the township council Monday night. Many of those present indicated interest in hearing the town board's view on the action concerning installation of traffic signal lights on Maryville Road, near Maryville School, where two small girls were struck by an auto on Jan. 19. One child died and the other still is serious as a result of the accident.

The Maryville Road location and another site where lights have been proposed, Kreitner School in State Park Place, are located on the town board's Feb. 8 meeting. Briggs and Town Clerk Louis Whitsett discussed the method of financing installation of electric signals. Estimated cost of installing lights is $12,000 at each school crossing area.

Both officials, who are opponents for the post as supervisor in the April 6 township election, agreed to the need of traffic signals at the two schools, but differed on where funds should be acquired to undertake the project.

Propose Different Financing

Briggs proposed financing the automatic traffic lights with surplus monies in the town fund account, while Whitsett suggested the possibility of using motor school tax funds to pay for the surplus funds to eliminate this year's township tax levy.

Whitsett reviewed the subject at Monday's meeting by issuing a statement concerning his position on the question of lights. He stated that he, as clerk stated in part, "...I will not have any part in using children's lives as a political issue. The supervisor knows very well that the town board has no authority to install a school crossing light, nor to transfer township funds to the highway department. The highway commissioner is the only one who can install a traffic device regardless of where the money comes.

Whitsett continued, "I promise you this, that lights shall be installed. I will meet with the commissioner to collect the money from door-to-door. This is not our function, but I will recommend to the people to attend the highway commissioner's budget hearing on March 30, to include a special appropriation in his budget for school crossing lights to be paid from either the road and bridge fund or motor fuel tax whichever he see fit."

"The people of this township deserve a tax break and they shall get it, but, if all else fails, then, and only then, will I recommend using town funds to build lights. I will meet with the new highway commissioner on April 7, (day after election) to discuss this at a political party, the township official concluded.

Briggs said, "All I suggested at the last meeting was that this board go on record to support the Pledge to the Road and Bridge fund so we can get on with the job. I am not using this as a political action. This action should have been done before, but we didn't have the funds."

GC Boy Scouts Find Stolen Autos on Hike

What started out as a routine hike became an adventurous experience during the weekend for members of a Granite City Boy Scout troop when they discovered three stolen automobiles secreted in a hidden area near Cahokia Mounds State Park, off Sand Prairie Lane.

Eight boys from Scout Troop 10, sponsored by Kirkpatrick Homes, were enjoying the exploration part of their 14-mile hiking trip when the discovery was made.

The three autos, including a 1971 Buick, had been left in an abandoned shed by the thieves in various stages of being dismantled.

The 1971 auto had not yet been wrecked, but two smaller vehicles were almost completely stripped of accessories and parts, according to Scoutmaster Ray Wubbles, who was taken to the scene by the boys at the time they stumbled on the hideouts.

Illinois State troopers were summoned to the scene by the scoutmaster and confirmed the vehicles were stolen. Tools apparently used in dismantling the cars also were found.

The troopers commended the scouts on their alertness and the local youths continued their hike homeward.

The unexpected adventure resulted in an additional four miles added to the 14-mile march, the walking distance required to telephone police, but the extra mileage was worth it, troop members said.

Scouts taking part in the hike were Danny Caughron, Wayne Hehle, Robbie Vaughn, Billy Hall, Harry Palmer, Wayne and Mitch Donithan and Bryan Watts.

More About Bi-State Transit

for $2.5 million in aid from the legislatures of Missouri and Illinois for the coming fiscal year.

Unless funding aid is received, and if projections of the tentative budget hold true, the cumulative deficit at the end of the fiscal year on Feb. 28, 1972, would approach $8 million.

The commissioners have been notified by the Mercantile Trust Co., trustee for Bi-State Transit System bondholders, that trust indenture requirements must be met. Knapp said that the transit system will have to split certain segments of the system and make a dramatic increase in fares if the legislatures of the two states fail to give any aid by their June 30 adjournments.

A 100% cutback in services, probably including an end to all Sunday bus services probably would be necessary, Smyser said.

$23 Million Revenue

The budget approved by the board estimates total revenue of $23,215,000. Operating expenses are projected at $22,522,000. These figures do not include trust indenture requirements.

This leaves a net operating revenue of $693,000, which is about $1.3 million less than the net operating revenue total for the last 12 months.

Estimated operating costs do not include any wage increases. The bus system's present wage contract expires Aug. 31.

Six of the commissioners questioned Tuesday whether approval of the budget projecting a $2.5 deficit was in compliance with the notice of the bondholders' trustee that indenture requirements be met.

Elks Study Purchase Of Land for Lodge

A motion to purchase five acres of land adjacent to the Arlington Heights Country Club and west of the road leading to the club was presented by the New Lodge Feasibility Committee of Elks Lodge 1063 at the regular meeting Tuesday night.

The land, which would cost about $35,000, may be used for the construction of a new lodge, but not in the near future, a lodge official said.

Plans for the new lodge began over a year ago and architect sketches have been submitted to the membership. The purchase of land would be the first step toward making the plan a reality. The motion to purchase the land is to be voted upon at the March 9 meeting.

Two new members, Donald Scott and Ronald Simpkins were initiated into membership at the meeting.

Robert Steinhauer, director of the Illinois Elks Association, told the Cripple Children's Commission, was the speaker. He told those present of the work now being done to help crippled children and of Elks-supervised training and scholarship programs for student nurses working toward a career in physical therapy. He also explained the roads open to Elks members who wish to help a crippled child receive care.

Johnston Gets

We should think about the engineering services we have been getting. All of the old men have availed themselves of his (Kieberger's) services, and he has done a good job. Before taking action, we should consider that he has performed the services well.

Basch noted that the Johnston firm had performed engineering services for the city in the early 1960s, and it didn't take years to get the job done.

Robertson maintained that Kieberger has drawn about $55,000 in fees for improvements during the past year with the actual performance until the Monday night meeting when two contracts were let for street resurfacing.

Morfeus, a strong supporter of Research Planning, was equally as strongly opposed to Johnston.

Black Law Suit

Robertson maintained that termination of the Research Planning contract and block of a law suit and prevent a further delay. He said that Kieberger "hasn't laid one yard of pipe in a year. If we're going to delay this job of getting the 80% of the cost of the improvement, the city should know it would be delayed beyond the filing date."

Alderman Sam Wiener continued the police department, Morgan & Schwaab as he (Edward Juneau, engineer) did the first job on sewers and there was no problem. "We know he is qualified, is local, pays taxes and is available."

Alderman Clyde Boyd took exception to the debate. "If Kieberger does not have a contract, why take this action to retire the contract? The mayor claims he does not have a contract with the consulting engineer. The motion is in conflict."

Nonn opined, "You don't know what you're doing." Upon the roll call, four aldermen passed and five voted against termination.

Taxpayers League

During the debate, members of the council took exception to an offer by the Tri-Cities Taxpayers group to help with the engineering firm dispute.

Basch said that "that group is a little too late."

Boyd suggested that "maybe they can be of some help to get the railroads to pay their taxes." He moved to contact the group on the matter.

There was some question as to the makeup of the taxpayers league and what or who it represents, with the suggestion that it represents large industrial taxpayers.

Nonn objected that "I have no objection to the taxpayers league working with the pollution committee. Are they willing to do this. If they are, they're surely welcome."

Police Officers Honored At Appreciation Dinner

Contrasting sharply with weekend reports of violent acts, police officers introduced at the country, local police department personnel and their families were honored by a church Brotherhood group here at the area's first "Law Enforcement Officers Appreciation Banquet."

The event was hosted by the Brotherhood of Mount Zion General Baptist Church. "In recognition of contributions made to the community by the Granite City Police Department."

Eleven police officers and their families were honored at the dinner held in the church fellowship hall, 2067 Benton St.

Outstanding response to no-tickets that the appreciation banquet would take place was noted by church officials, who said by a congregational membership of 156 persons, a total of 130 members attended the dinner.

The overall program and attendance presented a striking contrast to events occurring in other communities, where several police officers were killed in the line of duty during the weekend.

Presenting his idea of the policeman's role in community life from the viewpoint of a 12-year-old boy, was Steve Kelsaw, who serves as president of the Mount Zion Church Enterprise Youth Group.

Closing remarks and benediction were offered by the Reverend Robert Heims, pastor.

Chief Veizer, commenting this week about the event, said "We really appreciated the idea and the efforts behind the dinner. It is the first time anything quite like this has happened to us and it was very successful."

Economy Improving, Rotary Told Tuesday

In the near future interest rates will drop slowly and the general economy should improve, according to Norman Bowsher, assistant vice-president with the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis. Bowsher spoke to the Granite City Rotary Club at its noon meeting Tuesday at the YMCA.

"Total spending will gain 7 or 8 per cent as compared to a 4 per cent in 1970. The inflation rate also will go down this year," Bowsher predicted.

"Wage and price controls put on by the government will not work. They have never worked in this country or any other country where they have been tried. This type of control tends to bring about a black market and everyone just figures out new titles for the same jobs."

Next Tuesday's program will include a discussion on the new economy and a question on government wage and price controls. Bowsher commented, "Wage and price controls put on by the government will not work. They have never worked in this country or any other country where they have been tried. This type of control tends to bring about a black market and everyone just figures out new titles for the same jobs."

WILSON PARK SKATERS Ed Jacquin, left, and Jim Chapin who have been selected to the national speed skating team.

Jacquin, Chapin Named To National Skate Team

Ed Jacquin and Jim Chapin, both members of the Gateway Speed Skating Club, at Wilson Park, have been notified of their selection to the national speed skating team.

Their performance over this past winter in Olympic style skating at the 400 meter speed track in West Allis, Wis., has earned them a spot on the 24-man national team, from which the 1972 Olympic speed skating team will be selected. The '72 Winter Olympics will be held in Sapporo, Japan.

Both skaters have to put the final touches on their summer conditioning program by the early ice use at Wilson Park where the Gateway club holds its weekly practice sessions each Sunday morning.

They have been traveling to Wisconsin nearly every weekend since late November to work out on the large Olympic size rink in West Allis. Olympic style skating is different than the more publicized American style competition. In Olympic skating the skaters skate against time only instead of a group of other skaters. In this type of skating prime conditioning and dedication are a must if a competitor has any hope of coming out on top.

Jacquin, 17, competes in the intermediate boys division and is regarded as one of the better long distance skaters in the country. In the recently held National Outdoor Championships he was the two mile winner.

Hennessey Bowler Of Year

Tom Hennessey, Granite City product who won national fame in the past, was named Bowler of the Year Tuesday by the Greater St. Louis Bowling Association board of directors.

The directors also voted Jim Vrenick, Lee Badaracco, Frank Haidel and Henry Abbey into the association's Hall of Fame.

Hennessey, once named Granite City's professional athlete of the year, staged a hot-paced comeback in 1970 with two 300 games and 18 series of at least 700 pins.

In the association's all-events tournament last year, Hennessey finished second with a 40-game average of 229. The veteran pin master produced a 218 average in a scratch league and a 206 average in a traveling league.

He once was a member of the national championship team, playing in and out of St. Louis. He now resides in St. Louis County.

Freaks Trim Fuzz 38-37 in YMCA Benefit Basketball Game

The Freaks trimmed the Fuzz 5, Eric Crose 4, Bill Drew 2 and 38-37 as local teenagers were pitted against area law enforcement officers in a benefit basketball game Tuesday night at the YMCA before 350 fans.

Proceeds were contributed to the "Y." The game was sponsored by People in Action in the Community.

Scoring for the Freaks were Brian Bowman with 16 points, Mike Johnson 9, Dave Geisler 8 and Greg Hoshing 2 each.

Red Devils Win District Opener Over Dupo 80-74

The Venice High School Red Devils won the opening round of the Columbia district basketball tournament by defeating Dupo 80-74 Tuesday night.

As a result Venice will meet St. Henry's of Belleville in a semifinal game at 7 p.m. today. St. Henry defeated O'Fallon 56-39 in the second game Tuesday.

In other first-round games last night, Belleville Althoff defeated Columbia 74-69 and Lebanon came from behind to edge Levejoy 57-54.

Venice took a first quarter lead of 19-18 but lost it as Dupo pressed hard and went ahead for a 45-39 advantage. The Red Devils regained it, however, with two seconds left in the third period on a tip-in by Doug Johnson to make it 61-59 going into the final stanza.

Cedric Gardner led the Red Devils with 31 points. Gardner, top point maker in the metropolitan area with a 28.5 average, also has an average of 14 rebounds a game. Guard Don Maulen led Dupo with 21 points. Venice managed a 33-30 field goal average and the teams tied at the charity stripe at 14. Officials called 14 fouls against Venice's Tigers and 15 against Venice.

Other Red Devils in the scoring column were Algie Smith 15, Johnson 14, Ray Mosby 11 and Jim Ohlendorf. Venice is aiming for its eighth consecutive district championship, and if successful tonight, will have a shot at it 7:30 p.m. Friday. The district winner will advance to the Belleville West regional set next week.

Madison Defeats Roxana by 53-42

Efforts to slow the game was to no avail for Roxana as Madison High school basketball Trojans moved for a 53-42 victory of the Shells Tuesday night on the winners' court.

It was the third time this season that the Trojans have downed the Shells—81-79 in the Edwardsville tournament and 81-70 at Roxana.

"It was a real slow ball game," Trojan Coach Larry Graham said. "Roxana felt that they had to slow us down in order to beat us. But our team slowed down with them."

Roxana led at the end of the first quarter 9-7, and things didn't liven up much the second quarter except that Madison took the lead 18-17, and increased it to 20-17, heading into the final period when the Trojans poured on the steam.

High point man for Madison was Larry Boyd with 18. Roxana Forward Dean Bush scored 19. Other Trojans scoring were Ed Chandler 14, Douglas Griggs 11, Terance Burkhal 6 and Daryl Fletcher 4. Madison led in field goals 19-16 and in free throws 15-10. The Shells committed 14 fouls and the Trojans 11. "Our game at Highland Friday will be a tough one to win," Graham said. "I have got two more out of our season. Jerry Belford broke his thumb against McKinley and will be out the rest of the season we think; and Daryl Fletcher has just caught the flu."

The game at Highland will be the last of the regular season and the last Midwestern Conference game as the conference goes out of existence after this year.

The Trojans play top-rated Alton at 7 p.m. Monday in the opening game of the Wood River regional tournament.

Cougars Roll Over McKendree

Hopes remained alive for Southern Illinois University-Southwestern's basketball Cougars for a post-season NCAA small college tournament bid as it rolled to a 108-57 victory over McKendree College last night at Edwardsville.

But two roadblocks remain as Coach Jim Dudley's cagers host the University of Wisconsin, Milwaukee, tonight, and the University of Wisconsin, Kenosha, Saturday night to close their regular season.

Milwaukee defeated SIU-SW and the Cougars downed Kenosha in road games during the Christmas holidays. Lenny Thronburg earned 28 points, using his magic touch at the free-throw line with 10 out of 10, to lead the Cougars to their 14th victory in 24 outings.

John "Champ" Summers of Granite City added 19 points and Rich Essington of Venice collected 16 to add to the effort. The score was 45-39 at the half. SIU-SW bucketed 38 from the field and 33 from the charity stripe, while it was 34 and 19 for McKendree.

MORE ABOUT Airport

ranking site about three miles southwest of Foristell, near Wentzville, Mo. Most of the land is in Warren county and a small part in Charles county.

The Columbia site was given preference, the report said, because it is in a lightly populated area, has a fairly level terrain and has adequate air space clearance.

Meanwhile Robert B. Lamkin, chairman of the St. Louis Metropolitan Area Airport Authority, said in a meeting yesterday that expenses to date indicate that the authority will not require all of the $1.5 million dollars allotted for the planning of a new airport to serve the St. Louis area.

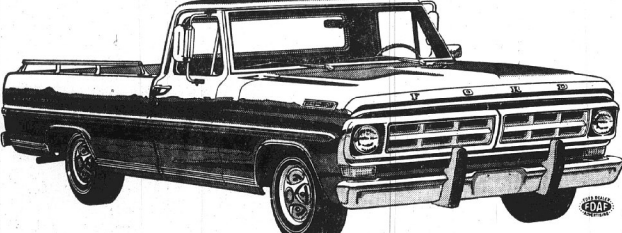

Lamkin's comment came after the first audit report was given to the authority at their monthly meeting yesterday afternoon in the Sunset Hills Hotel.

Total expenditures from July 1, 1970, to January 31, 1971, were $94,281, according to the report. The expenditures exceeded the allotment of $50,000 made for the period, but Lamkin explained that the cost of setting up the authority, furnishing the office and hiring a director caused the extra expenses.

Arvin H. Saunders, director, reported both the engineering and environmental studies were "on or slightly ahead of schedule."

Saluki Cagers to Host Evansville

Two of Southern Illinois University's toughest basketball rivals—Kentucky Wesleyan and Evansville—this week stand between the Salukis and their longest winning streak since the 1966-67 season when a guy named Walt Frazier authored a 19-game string, a 24-2 won-lost record and a National Invitation Tournament championship.

The Salukis, who Saturday night assured themselves of at least a share of the new Midwestern Conference title with an impressive 104-94 win at Northern Illinois, challenged Kentucky Wesleyan at Owensboro last night before entertaining Evansville at the SIU Arena Saturday. Both have earlier wins this season over the Salukis.

A pair of victories would boost SIU's current string to seven, one more than the Salukis put together in 1969, and its overall record to 13-8.

SIU Track Team Favored in Meet

Southern Illinois University track coach Lew Hartzog thinks his Salukis may be the team to beat at the Midwest Conference's first indoor track championship Friday and Saturday at Illinois State.

Northern Illinois, Indiana State, Ball State and host Illinois State are the other league schools which will challenge the Salukis.

Northern figures to be a strong threat since the Huskies were third behind SIU's second place finish at this year's Illinois intercollegiate.

"We should be the strongest in the sprint-oriented and field events," Hartzog said.

Last weekend SIU took third place at the Central Collegiate Conference meet and has a couple of firsts from Mike Bernard in the high jump (6-8) and Obed Gardner in the triple jump (46-10%).

205 Arrests Made By State Agents

There were 205 arrests in January by law enforcement officers of the Illinois Department of Conservation, according to Bill Miller, chief of the law enforcement division.

Game violators led the list with 177 violations, Miller said. There were 17 fish violations, two boating violations, four persons ticketed in state parks and five arrests for forestry infractions.

Unlicensed guns accounted for 43 of the game violations, and 28 hunters were arrested for failure to have a valid license.

Most of the fish violations were for polluting waters and having snowmobiles on ice, Miller said. Fines totaled $19,181.

GC HS Wrestlers Aim for State Titles at Champaign

Wrestling is scheduled to begin at 1 p.m. tomorrow at the Assembly Hall on the University of Illinois campus at Champaign for the 1971 Illinois High School State Championship Wrestling Tournament, and four grapplers from Granite City High School will be among the 192 wrestlers from throughout the state competing during the weekend.

Warrior wrestlers entered are Bruce Miller (105), a state qualifier last year and a champion in last weekend's sectional meet; Rich Sakaj (145), also a sectional champion; and Mike Garland (118) and Doug Wilson (136), runners-up from the sectional.

Miller qualified for the state finals by defeating his Cahoon opponent 14-0, his Decatur MacArthur opponent 5-2 and pinning Lyvern Adams of East St. Louis Lincoln in 1:41 in the championship round.

Adams fought Miller into a 4-4 tie during the district competition here, but Miller was declared the winner of that match by an overtime referee's decision.

Sakaj (145), "a pleasant surprise," according to Coach "Red" Schmitt, earned his berth in the state finals by defeating opponents from Belleville East 5-1, Springfield 8-6, and Springfield's Southeast Frank Burton 2-1 in the sectional. He almost lost his place in the championship round as he trailed 5-0 early in his second match, but turned the tables for a victory which ushered him into the championship bout.

The Hard Way Garland and Wilson took the long road to victory as under the Bagall-Wild system, losers in the championship round must prove they are qualified for second place by wrestling those defeated by the reigning champion prior to the championship match.

Garland pinned his Jacksonvill opponent in 3:32 in the first round and then earned a place in the finals by defeating Belleville East 9-1. In the championship round he fell to Jeff Krugger of Springfield 3-0 in overtime and had to face Joe Petty of Lincoln in a fourth match in order to win the second place and qualify for the state tournament.

Wilson defeated his Belleville East opponent 7-0, but in the second round lost to returning champion Morris Lathan of Southeast 4-2. Lathan won the championship in that weight class, giving Wilson a chance to again rise to a qualifying position.

He defeated a Mattoon grappler 12-3 in the regular third round and then fought Dave Angleton of Wood River in the wrestle-back round. Angleton defeated him 8-7 in the district match, but Wilson evened the score with a 12-3 victory for his berth at the Assembly Hall.

Mike Wilson (187) is an alternate in this weekend's competition as he placed third in the sectional tie, defeated Jacksonville 2-1, beating Steve Fitzsimmons to whom he fell earlier in the season.

Ronald Laboray to be Flown to U. S. Soon

Army Sergeant Ronald E. Laboray, 31, who suffered the loss of both eyes and the left arm below the elbow when a booby trap detonated while he was on a combat mission Feb. 13, is expected to leave Camp Zama Military Hospital, Japan, for the United States within 48 hours.

Mrs. Leta (Campbell) Laboray, wife of the serviceman, discussed his condition last night in a telephone conversation with her husband's Army physician, Dr. Seymour. The doctor reported Sgt. Laboray "was remarkable, his morale excellent and he had decided to advance his evacuation to stateside hospital immediately."

Mrs. Laboray said she made the call to Japan after receiving a telegram yesterday informing her the soldier would not be returned to the U. S. for two or three weeks.

"I was not satisfied and decided to make the call to the hospital. Unfortunately I could not talk to Ronnie in person as he has suffered a temporary voice loss, but Dr. Seymour said this will come back," she reported.

The Army doctor said authorities at Camp Zama Hospital initially intended to fly Mrs. Laboray to Japan and allow her to accompany her husband home, but re-evaluated the situation yesterday.

Dr. Seymour said the young soldier, who has an 11-month-old son, will undergo extensive plastic surgery on the face, hand and both legs, but he is not too seriously, and he is in a wheelchair, "his condition is good."

Communication between the physicians and Sgt. Laboray is carried out by writing, she noted. "The doctor commented several times how remarkable Ronnie is and the men in the same ward report that he is taking it wonderfully," Mrs. Laboray said.

The serviceman will be sent to Walter Reed Hospital, Washington, D. C., or to Valley Forge, Pa., the wife was advised.

MR. AND MRS. ALBERT KRAVEC. Their wedding took place in Immaculate Conception Church in Tamaroa, Ill. The bride is the former Diane Waligorski of Tamaroa. Mr. Kavec's parents are Mrs. Marie Kavec, and the late Andrew Kavec, of Granite City.

Miss Diane Waligorski
Bride of Albert Kavec

The wedding of Miss Diane Waligorski and Albert Kavec took place Feb. 13 in the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church in Tamaroa, Ill.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Jenny Harris of Tamaroa, and Pete Waligorski of DuQuoin. Mr. Kavec's parents are Mrs. Marie Kavec, and the late Andrew Kavec, 2304 East 21st St.

The Rev. Hugh Kilfoil officiated at the afternoon ceremony and a reception was held afterward at the KC Hall in Pinckneyville.

A gown of white delustrated satin was worn by the bride. It was fashioned with an Empire bodice of Chantilly lace, a high neckline and long full sleeves. Pearls were etched at the neckline, the bodice and on the motifs placed on the long A-line skirt. A full sweep train repeated the motifs and a long illusion veil was secured with a lace-petal headpiece embroidered with pearls. The former Miss Waligorski carried a circular bouquet of white carnations.

The bride's attendants were dressed alike in red chiffon gowns with high necks trimmed with matching red lace outlining the tucked bodices, encircling the waists and trimming the long sleeves. Headpieces were of red and all carried single red roses. Veils were floor-length. Miss Barbara Waligorski, a sister of the bride, and Mrs. Eileen Zetter were honor attendants, serving with Miss Shirley Pelzer, the bride's cousin, and Miss Connie Fisher, bridesmaids.

Carol Becker, and Jeffrey Strain, a niece and nephew of the bridegroom, were flower girl and ring bearer. The former wore a dress patterned after the bride's gown and made by the bride's mother. She carried a basket of carnations.

Ronnie Becker, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, is attending StU.

MISS ANITA PATTON. Her engagement and coming marriage to Max M. Speer is announced.

JUNIOR GIRL SCOUTS PLAN FOR CAMPOUT

Junior Girl Scout Troop 313, sponsored by the Parkview School PTA, met in the school cafeteria, Wednesday afternoon, with leader, Mrs. Janet Goeller and Mrs. Joan Wischnick. The Scouts made large green Girl Scout T-shirts, inscribed, "A Girl Scout Lives Here," which the Scouts will place in the front windows of their homes during Girl Scout Week. The leaders collected registration and insurance money, Helen Goeller, Susan Burgel, and distributed permission slips for a roller skating party, Thursday, March 4, at the Stardust Roller Rink. ## Doctor in the Kitchen

Consultant, National Dairy Council

PRESCHOOL CHILDREN—1

"Forming good eating habits early is one of the foundations for health that parents can pass along to children," says a new booklet published by the National Dairy Council for professional health leaders. Titled "Nutrition Source Book," the 40-page handbook is filled with technical details on teaching people how to eat. But it also contains many suggestions in simple everyday language.

So today we will pass some of this information on to you. Like how to help your preschooler overcome a seeming loss of appetite. Or liking one or two foods to the exclusion of others.

From 1 to 3 years
From 1 to 3 years of age children need more bodybuilding foods in proportion to weight than even though their total intake of food is less than that of older children. Since their stomachs can hold only so much, this is a time to be sure they eat too many concentrated sources of the source book, such as the foregoing. The booklet is reviewed by the Council on Foods and Nutrition of the American Medical Association and found consistent with current authoritative medical opinion. I must add my endorsement to the booklet. It is a good one for this preschooler time a bit further.

Then around 8 years the child usually slows in his growth and his appetite also slows down. If parents realize this is to be expected they need not become upset. Instead, the parent should encourage the child to eat. It may be wise to increase the number of meals by introducing between-meal eating. It's a case of realizing that young children cannot hold a lot of food at any one time.

Nursery School Studies
"Studies of nursery school children show," says the Nutrition Source Book, "that when snacks are eaten reasonably far ahead of mealtime, the appetite for the meal remains good. In fact, if the child is allowed to become too hungry or too tired before a meal, he may become so irritable that he fails to eat when the meal is set before him."

Good choices in snacks are milk, fruit, vegetable relishes, puddings, cereals, and butter sandwiches. Sweet may dull the appetite for mealtime, as well as interfere with good dental health.

The nutritional statements in the source book, such as the foregoing, are reviewed by the Council on Foods and Nutrition of the American Medical Association and found consistent with current authoritative medical opinion. I must add my endorsement to the booklet. It is a good one for this preschooler time a bit further.

James Davis Chosen by President Harding as New Labor Secretary

FEBRUARY 25, 1921

As exclusively told in the Press-Record several weeks ago, James J. Davis, an active card member of Lodge No. 11, Annapolis Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers of Chicago, who was slated for appointment by President-Elect Warren Harding as Secretary of Labor, in his Cabinet, was officially named for that post yesterday.

Mr. Davis, who has been residing in Pittsburgh, is well known here, especially among a large number of workers at the local rolling mills. He formerly worked for the American Steel Steel Co. at Elwood, Ind. His former neighbors at Elwood include R. H. Larned, present secretary and business agent of Lodge No. 11.

Three Happy Warrior Wrestlers Advance to Illinois State Tourney

FEBRUARY 21, 1946

Three members of Coach Lawrence McCauley's Community High School Wrestling Team advanced to the state wrestling tournament in sectional bouts at Champaign High School. They were Ronald Homer, 172-pounder, who won first place; Charles Merzian, last year's state champion, who drew a bye, outpointed his opponent and lost a 1-0 decision in his final bout; and Harold Ritchie, who lost on a referee's decision in his final match.

The Women's Society of Christian Service met at the home of Mrs. Zetta Hornbuckle, Mrs. Eula Settles, president, opened the meeting after the lesson was given. Plans were made for a luncheon in the near future. Those present were Mesdames Louise Schleff, Laura Hoffs, Alta Carpenter, Fern Sansoucie, Beulah Sparks, Edith Rhodes and Etta Dameron.

Illinois Laws Intended to Help Prospective Buyers of Used Cars

(Tri-City and Illinois Bar Associations)

You're tired of waiting for rain or a certain amount of protection. There are limits on the amount of a finance charge which the seller may add to the price of a car sold on credit. A used car which is two years old has a maximum finance charge of $11 per $100 of the loan per year.

The price goes to $14 per $100 per year for a car from two to four years old and $16 per $100 per year for cars older than four years. Because the person purchasing a used car must be very careful to try to get the best bargain he can for a car which is in reasonably good running condition, ISBA offers the following tips:

a. Get the name of the car's previous owner and call him. He can tell you the car's approximate mileage at the time he traded it in, why he traded it and whether it had been in any accidents. This means he probably missed other things, too.

b. Check the oil. If it is dirty, it indicates that the seller didn't even bother with a normal pre-sale oil change. This means he probably missed other things, too.

c. Guard against the purchase of an ex-taxi, ex-police car or former fleet car. This type of car usually has been driven too hard and too far to make it a good buy.

d. Look for holes drilled in the dashboard which might have accommodated a two-way radio in such a car.

e. Have the car you intend to buy examined by a mechanic when you trust. He can give you a good appraisal of the car's condition and what it will cost to maintain.

f. If you have done all these things, you should be able to wave from your car to the former business friends when next winter rolls around.

Chance for Both Sections of Divided Levee District to Serve Public More Efficiently

The only one we have heard of has taken a stand against division of the East Side Levee & Sanitary District along the Madison-St. Clair County line posed the question, "Why would anyone want half of a bad thing?" We think there is an answer, and we are pleased to see such public officials as the Madison and Venice city fathers, Madison County supervisors, State Senator Vadala and State Representatives Calvo and Kennedy take an active role in the effort to split the district.

"Why would anyone want half of it?" Because Quad-City's new taxing body can go bankrupt, or that it should do so even if it could. Because they do not think the levee district can be liquidated. And because they think "half a loaf," the territories north and south of the county line, can be operated more soundly and efficiently if each is answerable to its own separate, single, cohesive community of voters and taxpayers.

The new levee budget for 1971 illustrates the point. Record spending of $2,535,250 is projected. An income—outage imbalance of $589,851 is listed in the general fund, plus issuance of $800,000 in tax anticipation warrants, bringing the district's estimated operating debt to $1,389,851 at the end of the fiscal year, 31, 1971, not counting the considerable debt on bond principal and interest.

This much "red ink" is a heavy millstone around the neck of each citizen. And the deficit will not just go away by being ignored. On the contrary, it gets bigger every year.

There is no magic wand that we know of which can wipe the debt all going to have to be paid back, somehow. Meanwhile, bigger and bigger sums are evaporating, going toward interest costs which achieve the temporary relief of not being paid but which achieve nothing in the way of tangible levee-sewer services or facilities.

Why divide the levee district? Because it is going downhill and the present situation. There is no realistic chance for it to be either expanded or dissolved. There is a genuine chance that it can be separated—and that both the Quad-City and East St. Louis sectors would then be able to work effectively to make each levee and drainage system a businesslike operation deserving of public confidence.

If there is anything harder than breaking a bad habit, it is to refrain from telling people how you did it.

Instructions Explain Who Must File Estimated Tax Declaration

(Internal Revenue Service)

Q) Why did I get estimated tax forms? I've never filed an estimated tax return before.

A) Estimated tax forms were sent not only to everyone who filed a declaration of estimated tax for 1970 but to those who had a balance due of $40 or more when they filed their 1969 returns.

Read the instructions that came with the forms to see if you are required to file an estimated tax declaration for 1971. Discard the forms if you are not.

If you are required to file, be sure to use the pre-addressed forms sent you. These forms are identified with your name, address and social security number just as they appear in IRS files.

Q) Can I deduct the amount I pay to my ex-wife? A) Yes, if you are paying her for her services as an employee. If you are paying her for her services as a partner, the payments are not deductible to you.

Note, that child support payments are not deductible to you by gift or inheritance, as well as income from wagering and long-term capital gains, are to be averaged.

In averaging income, a taxpayer in effect spreads current income over the current and preceding four years, thereby lowering the tax rate on current income. The result is a lesser overall tax liability.

If your 1970 taxable income is at least $3,000 more than 120% of the average of your taxable income for the preceding years, you may elect to average your income for the years 1967, 1968, 1969 and 1970. The benefits can be substantial.

Mr. and Mrs. Adams filed Joint Federal Income Tax returns for the years 1967, 1968, 1969 and 1970. Their average taxable income during that period was $20,000. They wish to reduce their 1970 tax cost, invest the few minutes required to complete the Schedule G form. The instructions are not overly difficult to follow.

Only two categories of income are now available for averaging: premature distribution from self-employment and distributions from trusts of accumulated taxable income.

Philosophy Doctors May Have to Be a Bit Philosophical About Their Need for Jobs

"Employment wanted. Doctor of philosophy. Willing to work long hours for low pay. Character references upon request. Getting a bit desperate. Work is soundly pleasurable, call me." We have not run across this kind of advertisement yet, but the definition of Ph.D. these days is said to be Prospects Highly Depressing.

In nearly every field, work is scarce for hundreds who have studied for three to eight years for a doctorate, which once was a virtually certain ticket to academic or professional success. And the lack of jobs may stay that way for the rest of this decade.

Colleges, citing rising financial burdens and cutbacks in federal research funds, are dropping study projects and reducing their curriculum diversity.

At the same time that the number of doctor of philosophy degrees issued annually was tripled in the 1960s, from 10,000 to 30,000, the supply caught and passed the demand in such subjects as European and American History, English, political science and religion.

The trend may change in a few years, but authorities at present are unanimous in predicting a painful readjustment period. Best bet for those already in the process of becoming doctors of America is to graduate with a specialty in search "establishment" may be to switch emphasis toward such still-aught-after specialties as mathematics, sociology, anthropology, psychology, astronomy, earth sciences, biology and medicine.

Full-Time Staff for Industrial Development

Quad-Cityans wish the Illinois Metro East Industrial Development Corporation well in its $50,000 fund drive to permit hiring of a professional staff to supplement the present services by volunteers.

As President Arnold Cassens has commented, "Population growth, highway development and the proposed new major airport all are favorable factors. But coordinated development efforts—both favorable public relations—are vitally needed."

An extensive research program already has been developed. Building on this solid foundation of factual data, the organization—through the planned full-time staff—has a fine chance of stimulating job opportunities.

There can be an unprecedented level of prosperity in the region of Illinois opposite St. Louis if the people, jointly and individually, make it happen.

Confusion is one woman plus one left turn; excitement is two women plus one secret; bedlam is three women plus one bargain; chaos is four women plus one luncheon check.

City Water Franchise Talks Are Successful

"Why didn't we do this years ago?" is the principal reaction to the signing of a franchise agreement between the city of Granite City and the East St. Louis & Interurban Water Co.

Although hundreds of thousands of dollars may have been lost during the postwar years by the absence of a franchise with the water utility, the lack has been remedied now and the municipality will gain an estimated $557,670 between now and the end of this century.

The hard-worked-out legal and financial committee composed of Gerald Parmley, chairman, and Sam Whitmer and Charles Moerlein merits applause along with all others who played a part. Dividends will include not only the helpful revenue and utility service but also improved fire protection.

Winter Wonderland

What kind of self-image do Granite Cityans have of their city?

We suspect that the municipality has "turned the corner" in recent years, that it increasingly is thought of as a good place to live, play and shop, as well as its original role of being a good place to work.

Granite City has been derided in a Chicago newspaper as merely a "mill town," whatever that means. But a community that cares enough to provide the very best—in educational facilities and staff, in parks and recreation as well as much to offer prospective residents and businesses.

A half-century ago, the emphasis was a bit different. When the fledgling city was only 25 years old, most thoughts dwelled on the industrial employment base, judging by entries in a slogan contest conducted by the city and its official Slogan Committee Club.

Purpose was to select a slogan to replace the previous motto, "Granite City Best—Live, Work, Invest."

The winning slogan, "Granite City, Ill.—Industrial Magnet of the West," was submitted by Miss Lillian M. Watkins, 17, a senior at Granite City High School, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Watkins, 2242 State St.

Second prize went to Mrs. R. B. Nance, 2604 Cayuga St., for "Granite City, Busy and Friendly."

It was decided to hold the contest after the Mississippi Valley Highway Association reported plans to erect signs along roads leading to each municipality, giving the name of the city and its official slogan.

A partial list of the flood of proposed slogans submitted in 1921 follows. We have converted Granite City to GC to save space and reading time:

Promoter of coke, steel and Sun Motor; investigate GC; coke will make GC famous; GC to the front; GC will help you to help yourself.

Win with GC; live and grow with GC; the Merca city; climb the ladder with GC; where steel plants grow; GC has a will, iron is invited to oven, furnace and mill.

A greater commonwealth of national industries; the biggest city in the Middle West; a place to live and let live. Best investment that can be made in the heart of GC; the rest of the country is the future of the West; locate here and progress; GC for industry, work and safety first; GC, the ideal industrial center; the future home of big industries; home of industry; great center of industry; growing community indeed.

The home of prosperity, accumulation and character; the temple of knowledge and the future; the home of the West; East, West, North or South, GC is heard from every mouth.

Red stripes, white stars make GC people's hearts right—stars and stripes, GC is bright.

GC is an industrious and desirable city; when you see granite-ware, think of GC; where life is worth living; GC has steel foundation, makes solid speculation.

Sturdy as an oak, maker of steel and coke.

GC is an industrious and desirable city; when you see granite-ware, think of GC; where life is worth living; GC has steel foundation, makes solid speculation.

Sturdy as an oak, maker of steel and coke.

GC is an industrious and desirable city; when you see granite-ware, think of GC; where life is worth living; GC has steel foundation, makes solid speculation.

Sturdy as an oak, maker of steel and coke.

GC is an industrious and desirable city; when you see granite-ware, think of GC; where life is worth living; GC has steel foundation, makes solid speculation.

Sturdy as an oak, maker of steel and coke.

GC is an industrious and desirable city; when you see granite-ware, think of GC; where life is worth living; GC has steel foundation, makes solid speculation.

Sturdy as an oak, maker of steel and coke.

Heart of the West; GC welcomes you; I am from GC, the town of prosperity.

You will find it in GC; stop, promote, boost GC; GC will always lead; the cross road of the future.

If it's work, it's here—if it's here, it's work.

GC, golden opportunity leads all in service.

Move on Wood River, or step aside.

GC's growing—be there by '25; if an industry is located in GC, GC with coke and steel and location ideal; GC my name, coke and steel my fame; onward, forward GC.

Stop, look, watch and see where GC will be; GC meets demands—work and food for willing hands.

GC is a home for you—she furnishes the industrial for all; GC always is as solid as its name; live, work and invest in GC, the Pittsburgh of the West.

Of all the cities in the West, GC is the best; the iron-bound city of the West, the place to work, live and invest; GC or anywhere for work or to invest, come to GC and she will do the rest.

In GC, you see the home of opportunity; all together and push for a greater GC; not only city, but our city, why not yours?

Rebirth of a nation, labor of industry united; GC America's rising sun; the nation's bee-hive; do you know that GC industries are greater than any city of its size in the U. S.?

For an ideal home and prosperous life, come to GC; GC is the place to grow rich with GC; wonderful GC; with Nesco, watch GC.

GC the best, the Phoenix of the Middle West; the master builder of industrial life; a million population by 1930.

The city of harmony and prosperity; the spot of industry; buy a home, buy at home in GC.

Come to GC and prosper; the city of industrial supremacy; the door of prosperity is open; you are invited to enter and secure a share with the most desirable citizens.

Welcoming is the emblem marked on the open gates to prosperity of spotless GC; sunshine, health, happiness and prosperity, the foundation of GC.

The greatest small city in the world; the Mecca of manufacturing; where steel plants grow; the most enterprising city in America.

We'll have the list at that point, having written about many superlatives as we can stand for one day.

Why didn't we just name it Granite City, Ill., and skip the slogan idea? We don't know. But aware now that the great enterprise in the West is eight years away at the time of the contest, we're mighty glad that they didn't.

A lot of the 1921 dreams of a better era did come true, of course, during the "roaring twenties" and in the post war years. Based on the final 1970 census figure released this month, however, we are still 420,000 people short of that half-million population forecast.

Mediterranean Once a Dead Sea

(American Institute of Physics)

Long ago, the Mediterranean Sea acted like a giant rain pond, alternately filling with rain and drying up many times as its access to the Atlantic opened and closed repeatedly.

The process ceased five and a half million years ago, but the Mediterranean has continued to balance ever since.

This conclusion was reached by the team of scientists led by Glomar Challenger after the Deep Sea Drilling Project's first expedition to the Mediterranean.

The scientists thought the results surprising, but consider them valid in light of their discoveries in the 2,200 feet of sedimentary material and rock they drew up in tall columns from 28 holes drilled deep in to the sea floor.

One possible explanation of the flooding and drying of the Mediterranean is that the Straits of Gibraltar, over a period of six million years, might have become alternately shallow and deep. Conceivably, when the Straits were shallow the great expanse of the Mediterranean could have been greater than the inflow of water from the Atlantic, causing the sea to dry up. Scientists estimate that in the 2,200 feet of sedimentary material and rock they drew up in tall columns from 28 holes drilled deep in to the sea floor.

Cutting Remarks as Jurist Gives Hair Fad a Trimming

Will the latest legal ruling on hair length cause a shock "wave" in U. S. high schools and colleges?

It may be too early to tell, but Supreme Court Justice Hugo L. Black, for one, thinks the issue ranks far down on the list of important issues, regardless of one's age.

Commenting that a 50-page court record which was presented to him on the subject seemed "calculated to leave the impression of a great national crisis," the jurist said he feels no crisis exists.

In a Feb. 11 ruling, he concluded that the U. S. Constitution does not give high school boys the right to wear their hair long, despite the widespread theory that the long-haired founding fathers did regard long hair as an "inalienable right."

Justice Black refused to interfere with El Paso, Tex., school authorities' requirements for boys' hair styles.

The rule in El Paso is that hair must not "hang over the ears or the top of the collar of a standard dress shirt, and must not obstruct vision."

Cheyler Karr, a student, won an order abolishing the rule in the U. S. District Court in El Paso. But the Fifth U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals suspended the order, thus allowing the rule to be enforced.

The student asked Black to reinstate the district court's decision so that it would be in effect during the appeal.

"I refuse to hold for myself that the federal courts have constitutional power to interfere in this way with the public school system operated by the states," Justice Black said in a three-page opinion.

"And I furthermore refuse to predict that our court will hold they have such power," he concluded.

Two Residence Halls Reserved for Transfers

Two on-campus residence halls at Southern Illinois University's Carbondale campus will be reserved for junior college transfer students beginning next fall.

Thomas McGinnis, coordinator of community college relations in the SIU admissions office, said the reserved dormitories at Thompson Point will enable transfer students to live with students of comparable educational backgrounds and will give them better "living and learning" conditions.

The arrangements also will help transfer students who don't complete second semesters until June after SIU housing for the fall term is sometimes filled up, according to McGinnis.

Miles Explorers To Hold Open House

An open house for young men interested in joining Explorer Post 69 will be held at 7:30 p.m. today in the training room of the Marschall Division of Miles Laboratories, Inc., 900 Nineteenth St.

The strength and quiet of a double-panel steel roof.

A roomier interior. Over 500 more square inches of glass. The extra protection of a steel luggage-compartment bulkhead. The corrosion barrier provided by four inner fenders, Camaro, with its superb handling. Closest thing to a Vette yet. Check into the competition. ## GOP Women Name Thomas Man of Year

Coroner Robert Thomas was named "Man of the Year" by flag, led the pledge of allegiance and sang their club song "Look out World We're The Stars".

The 1971 officers were presented at the meeting. They are Mrs. Wortman, president; Mrs. Gladys Newman, first vice-president; Mrs. Edna Kohlbrecher, second vice-president; Mrs. Maxine Grissman, third vice-president; Mrs. Hazel Arch-Brinkley, and Kirk and Laura Arbogast, who presented the "Man of the Year" award, and Mrs. Darlene Kahn, secretary; and Mrs. Darlene Kahn, treasurer.

Former Senator Ralph T. Smith, guest speaker, took as his topic "Forward Together". He stressed accomplishments of the Republican party and asked each one to make a personal assessment of individual responsibility.

In addition to the Man of the Year award the club decided to give recognition to others they feel deserve acclaim for service to the GOP. This award, called "Good Guy 1970", was presented to the speaker; County Chairman Clyde Belcher; Mrs. Jane Reese, president of the Republican Women's Service League and Bill Burns.

Mrs. L. B. Patton and Charles Bayer were winners of attendance prizes at the meeting.

Dean Owen said, "Basically we want to accept all valid credits whatever the source—military or college."

He outlined the various ways by which a service man can earn college credits. They are through CLEP (the College Level Examination Program), GED (the General Educational Development—College Level), USAFI (United States Air Force Institute), military service schools and other programs.

Many subjects, such as English composition, the humanities, math, the sciences, history and social sciences, literature, health and P.E. may be studied for college credit.

"McKendree is an opportunity place" said Dean Owen. "We want the service man to know that his educational experiences while in the Air Force, Army or Navy will translate into college credits."

Regional Report -- SIU Board, Airport Headline Events

(Illinois Metro-East Industrial Development Corp.)

Three new members of the Board of Trustees of Southern Illinois University were named this week by Gov. Ogilvie. The appointees are Edwin C. Berry of Chicago, Harris Rowe of Jacksonville, and Dr. Earl Walker of Harrisburg. Berry, 60, was executive director of the Chicago Urban League; he is the Board's first black member. Harris Rowe, 47, is president of the Central National Life Insurance Co. Dr. Earl Walker is a 37-year-old physician who received his education at SIU-Carbondale and the University of Illinois. Walker has just concluded a term as a member of the Board of Trustees of the University of Illinois. The three new SIU Board members replace F. Guy Illit of Benton, Melvin Lockard of Mattoon, and current Board President Lindell Sturges of Metropolis.

Support for locating the new metropolitan area airport in Metro East was recently received from U.S. Senator Charles Percy. Indicating that he felt an Illinois location for the airport is right for both sides of the river, Percy expressed a willingness to battle Senator Symington for an Illinois site. Percy is now the ranking Republican on the Senate Transportation Appropriations Committee.

Eight persons trained in the Intensive Training and Employment Program in East St. Louis will receive permanent jobs in about two weeks with the Illinois Department of Conservation.

Granite City PRESS-RECORD

The workers will become park ranger aides or recreation specialists. Starting salaries for these positions range from $382 to $459 per month. Several construction projects were briefly shut down last week by members of the United Black Workers Association. Association members appeared at construction sites and asked white workers to leave, which they did. The projects include Turnkey housing in East St. Louis and a gas line repair in Venice. The United Black Workers Association is composed mainly of men trained under the Metro East plan for equal employment opportunity in the local highway construction industry.

The American Zinc Company plant in Saguet will be closed by the summer of this year. The St. Louis based company, which has generally been losing money during the last several years, announced that it was closing the Saguet and Dumas, Texas, plants and selling a subsidiary, American Zinc Sales Co. to Texas Gulf Sulphur Co. The mining, stone, and pigment divisions which have been profitable, will remain part of the company. Even though the Saguet plant was recently renovated, the costs of refining zinc at it are reportedly higher than they are at other plants in the U.S. and Canada. The plant employs over 500 people and has an annual payroll of nearly $5 million.

Announcements involving the Edwardsville Southern Illinois Commerce development south of Edwardsville were part of the news. The Edwardsville City Plan Commission recommended that three tracts of the ESIC development be annexed to the city and that a special use permit for a mobile home park be issued for one of the tracts. The land involved is west of the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad, south of the right-of-way of the Illinois Terminal Railroad, and on both sides of the proposed Route 143 by-pass. The construction of 450 to 600 apartment units, to begin this summer, has been announced for a part of the ESIC development along Illinois Route 157. A petition in the rezoning of this land from agricultural to multi-family residential will be heard by the Madison County Zoning Board of Appeals in March. In St. Clair County, a zoning variance to permit the construction of the proposed three story Illini Federal Savings and Loan Assn. building has been granted by the St. Clair County Zoning Board of Appeals.

A study of the alternate source of water for the area to be served by the Madison-Macoupin County Intercounty Water Commission was made public last week. This report noted five alternative sources of supply—each town could supply its own water, water could come from the Mississippi River, wells could be developed in the American Bottoms, Carlyle Reservoir could be utilized, and lastly a new reservoir could be built in the Commission area. The development cost of any of the alternatives involving a common water source was estimated at $7 to $8 million.

In general area news, the Illinois Division of Highways will re-study the widening and re-location of Illinois 157 south of Interstate 270 to Cahokia;

The Southwestern Bell Telephone Company plans to spend $13 million this year for construction in the Belleville area, two Metro East high school basketball teams, Alton and Belleville West, are ranked among the top eleven teams in the State of Illinois by the Associated Press; Granite City contractor Leo Wolf is the new president of the Southern Illinois Builders Association; and a discussion on the development of industrial parks in Metro East will be held at noon this coming Friday at the Round Table Restaurant in Collinsville.

Ogilvie Transportation Plan 'Forward Step'

The Chamber of Commerce of Metropolitan St. Louis has hailed Illinois Governor Richard B. Ogilvie's proposed program for financing new state transportation systems as a great forward step.

"In recommending a State Department of Transportation," Chamber President A. J. O'Brien said, "the governor is recognizing, as does Missouri Governor Warren Hearnes, that modern state governmental structure must provide for increased consideration and implementation of all modes of transportation."

O'Brien pointed out that 13 other states have established departments of transportation for this purpose. None is identical, but they all serve as a central source of planning, coordination, and leadership in the development of a modern, balanced state transportation system.

"Particularly gratifying," the Chamber president said, "is the governor's proposal of $200 million for capital investment in mass transportation systems. Although the new federal urban mass transportation program will finance two-thirds of the proposed rapid transit system for metropolitan St. Louis, it is already apparent that some of the local share will have to come from the two states.

"The Chamber of Commerce has long supported the supplemental freeway program in Illinois," O'Brien said, "and we are pleased to see that a major portion of the $200 million bond issue is earmarked to get this essential and long overdue program underway."

Truck Hit in Rear

A tractor trailer truck driven by Earl Smith, East St. Louis, moving slowly in the fog, was struck by an auto driven by William D. Heffner, 1735 Venice Ave., who skidded Monday on E. 23rd Street near Edwardsville Road.

Sign-Up Due for 1971 Medicare Coverage

Ralph Brasher, manager of the East St. Louis Social Security Office announced that the annual general sign up period for Medicare Medical Insurance closes March 31, 1971. Medical insurance is the voluntary part of Medicare that helps pay doctor bills. Brasher advised persons 65 or over who have not signed up for Medicare Medical Insurance to contact their local Social Security Office for more information.

Center for Emotionally Disturbed in Progress

Community service is a necessary ingredient for training and education, according to Thomas M. Shea, coordinator of the new Special Education Center for emotionally disturbed children on the Southern Illinois University-Southwestern.

The center was established primarily as a public service facility for the Metro-East area after a study showed that less than 4% of the maladjusted children were being served in Madison County and about 10% were receiving special education training in St. Clair County, Shea said.

"It was feasible to establish a comprehensive training center for the emotionally disturbed and learning disabled child and at the same time create a practicum center for the future special education teachers and a research facility for graduate students," Shea explained.

Goals of the special education center, Shea stated, "are to provide individualized and small group instruction for children with learning and behavior disorders, enabling the child to return to the normal classroom setting as soon as possible."

Six children are involved in the program now. Three to five staff members work with the children daily. They provide a total school program involving the teaching of arithmetic, reading and writing, with a recreation program designed to increase motor skills and large muscle development.

The children are referred to the center from area special education districts. Thorough evaluations are made of the child's problems in the classroom and at home before acceptance.

ON STAGE The Inspirational Gospel Group present a moving gospel show. The group plans to make its first record album in the near future.

'The Inspirational' Gospel Group on Its Way to Fame; Cut First Album

By GARY SCHNEIDER
Press-Record Staff Writer

Rapidly becoming one of the best known groups in the metropolitan area, "The Inspirational" gospel singers from Granite City are about to make themselves known nationally in the release of their first record album.

The group, which consists of four area couples and occasionally two of their children, was organized in September, 1969. They feature a trio of singers and five instrumentalists who also occasionally sing.

Singers in the group are Mrs. Virgie Collins, also Mrs. Dianne Palermo, contralto, and Loretta Bradford, lead. Mrs. Collins, a former member of the "Musical Hearts" gospel singers, also plays accordion, piano, organ or almost any instrument within reach.

They are backed up by Ed Collins, lead guitar; Jim Bradford, rhythm guitar; Gary Pryor, bass guitar; Jim Palermo, trumpet, and Don Bradford, drums. The drummer has turned down numerous offers from well known groups to stay with "The Inspirational."

Gospel singing is more than a part-time hobby with members of the group, although all of the men and several of the ladies have full time jobs, but it is more of an obsession as they gather every chance to practice or just to enjoy singing together.

They do not charge for their performances and any group enjoying gospel singing is welcome to invite them. Donations are appreciated, but not necessary, a member said.

All are members of the City Temple Assembly of God Church and sing there often.

They also have played in many churches here and in Alton, Godfrey and Bethalto. They also have sung in the Granite City Depot chapel. They made such a hit at a Full Gospel Businessmen's Association Banquet in St. Louis several months ago that they were invited back a second time.

Last week they received a personal invitation from Katherine Kulman to appear in August at the Kiehl Auditorium for the Katherine Kulman Night Gospel Sing.

Backers of the group are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Peck of Madison, who are as enthused about the prospects of a record album as the Inspirational members. Groups or organizations who would like to have the Inspirational entertain are invited to contact Mrs. Joyce Pryor at 891-4530.

"We're great," said Mrs. Pryor, "even if I am just a little bit prejudiced."

Troopers Sponsoring Public Dance May 1

Use of professional fund raisers in promoting activities of Illinois State Troopers Lodge 41, Fraternal Order of Police, has been halted, the Press-Record has been advised.

A woman who dressed herself as Mrs. Clark, wife of a trooper, said she is being paid a salary by Lodge 41 and is handling promotional duties and financial accounting.

"This year, to promote our benefit dance, we have hired a local high school boy and girls to assist in sending out letters, making phone calls and doing the various tasks needed. I am not exactly sure what our administrative costs will be, but they will run between 10% and 15%," she said.

The second annual benefit dance will be held Saturday, May 1, from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. at the St. Clair County Fairgrounds, Belleville. The Bob Crosby orchestra will be featured. Tickets are $12 per couple.

Proceeds from the dance will be used to aid members of the lodge or their families in time of emergency, it was reported. When funds have been available, aid has been extended to individual police officers who are not members, the spokesman said.

Lodge 41 is composed of Illinois state police covering 11 counties in central Illinois, including Madison County.

Summer Camp Directory Published, Available

For parents seeking ideas for their youngsters' vacation activity and for young people looking for summer employment, a new directory listing camps and for young people, midwestern boys and girls' summer camps has just been published by the Midwest Association of Private Camps.

The directories are now available, without charge, by writing to the association at 1946 Bosworth Lane, Northfield, Ill. 60063.

Secretary of State Sets Up New Division

Secretary of State John W. Lewis has announced the creation of a new Division of Investigation for the Office of the Secretary of State to be headed by a staff of veteran law enforcement officers and investigators.

Secretary Lewis said the new division will handle security operations as well as to make certain that motor vehicle laws relating to titles, registration, dealers, driver licensing and safety responsibility are fairly and properly enforced, including the collection of fees.

Lewis named John S. Stuper, 60, of Springfield, a major and 29-year veteran of the Illinois State Police, superintendent of the division.

Joe Wheeler, 61, of Chicago, a former FBI agent and veteran Chicago investigator, has become assistant to the superintendent and will coordinate the division's internal investigations, training and other projects.

Secretary Lewis also named two assistant superintendents. Robert Kutz, 31, of Chicago, will head Cook County operations. Kutz has been a captain in the Cook County sheriff's office for the past four years, heading internal investigations. He also was commander of the riot control unit.

Lyle Wheeler, 43, of Loomis will be in charge of the division for the past seven years. From 1965 until he was appointed acting chief of investigations by Secretary Lewis, Wheeler had served as assistant chief.

These four men bring a wide range of experience in law enforcement to the Office of the Secretary of State," Lewis said. "It is obvious that under their direction the people of the State of Illinois will be served correctly with courtesy, fairness and efficiency."

Training Required
"Coupled with these appointments is a far reaching plan to upgrade our entire investigative procedures, not only within the office but also involving matters dealing directly with the public. For the first time, minimum and maximum standards have been set for field investigators and each is required to undergo an interview before hiring. Special training programs also have been instituted and future plans call for all men to undergo training similar to that required by state troopers."

"The fact that Major Stuper was granted a leave of absence from his important position with the Illinois State Police is an indication of the interest of Herb Brown, director of the Department of Law Enforcement, in a strong investigative division for this office. We anticipate this for the past seven years. From 1965 until he was appointed acting chief of investigations by Secretary Lewis, Wheeler had served as assistant chief.

Stuper, a native of Sangamon County, was appointed to the Illinois State Police on July 15, 1961. He is a graduate of the FBI National Academy and also attended the Police Administration School and the Police Management School of Northwestern University's Traffic Institute.

Stuper was promoted to major in October 1968 and has been serving as area commander in charge of field operations of District 1-7 with 750 men under his direction.

Program to Feature Movie Mood Music

Mysterious, hurried, agitated and passionate — these are just a few of the moods expressed in the silent film days by the pianist in the movie theater pit.

If the management could afford it, there might have been a sideman or two or even a small orchestra. Scores for silent movies were published for full orchestra, small orchestra, extra parts, or just for piano or organ, depending upon the size and grandeur of the theater. Smalltown theaters, for example, usually had to be content with keyboard accompaniment to keep movie goers in the mood.

Sunday at 3 p.m. the nostalgic silent film era will be revived in the Communications Building theater at Southern Illinois University, with three old movies featuring Renato Premazzi at the piano. Premazzi, a member of the music faculty at the Southwestern campus, will use music from a collection of silent movie scores given to Lovejoy Library in 1968 by Elmer Bookor of Greenville. The collection belonged to his late brother Ralph, who played for many years in a theater orchestra in St. Louis.

The movies will include "The Great Train Robbery," starring G. M. Anderson in the first movie made which told a story; Charlie Chaplin in "The Tramp," and "The Floating Coffin," Episode 9 from the "Perils of Pauline," which starred Pauline, White, silent movie serial queen.

GCHS Band Concert Set Tonight in Cafeteria

The concert is open to the public, with admission by season ticket. Single performance tickets also will be available at the door.

Featured on the program will be a series of folk numbers contained in the "Folk Song Suite," by R. Vaughn Williams.

The record figures for the excess and surplus lines insurer were announced by V. I. Minahan, president of All-Star and of the parent company, Post Corporation, of Appleton, Wis. Gross premiums for the year were $7,503,888, compared with $2,502,490 written in the year before. Net premiums rose to $5,483,391 from $2,042,238. Earned premiums in the year were $4,659,066 compared with $1,792,004 a year ago.

Underwriting ratios (Best's formula) were significantly improved from a total of 98.19% in 1969 to 92.46% in the year just completed. Post Corporation acquired a majority interest of All-Star in mid-1969, and has since increased its ownership to 97.4%.

The 50-year old Post Corporation is a diversified company with primary interests in communications fields. Among the Post companies are two additional insurance subsidiaries: INRECO, a Los Angeles brokers' intermediary firm, and Post Financial Corporation, a premium finance facility headquartered in Hinsdale, Ill. Post Corporation also is the parent company of the Granite City Press-Record.

January Canal Freight 2.5 Million Tons

Freight tonnage shipped through the Chain of Rocks locks and canal during January fell sharply below December freight movement. Total January shipments amounted to 2,483,321 tons, compared with 3,693,388 tons in December, according to reports by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers.

January shipments this year increased 633,226 tons over the January 1970 total of 1,850,095 tons.

The total number of vessels passing through the locks decreased from 4,768 in December to 3,617 in January with all types of craft showing a decrease except government tow boats which increased from four in December to nine in January, and U.S. barges which increased from eight to 15 during the same period.

Types of boats showing decreases were commercial tow boats with 867 in January, compared to 910 in December; commercial barges with 2,885 in January compared to 3,818 in December; government contractor boats, none last month and one in December; private recreation boats, one in January and 18 in December, and government patrol boats, 10 last month, 16 in December.

The January decline is a seasonal one.

Lockages for January totaled 603, compared with 872 in December and 547 in January 1970.

Total commercial tonnage moving upriver in January was 1,242,123 tons while 1,240,198 tons moved downriver.

Freight shipments included: petroleum products, 336,725 tons upriver, 135,975 tons downriver; grain, 20,859 up, 911,648 down; coal, 227,550 up, 4,200 down; cement, sand and gravel, 11,100 up, 11,200 down; sulphur, 2,500 up, none down; miscellaneous commodities, 289,950 up, 68,125 down; iron and steel products, 76,100 up, 82,750 down, and chemicals 268,348 up, 26,300 down.

Illinois Power Co. Jumps Capacity 55% During 1970

The new capacity included a 600,000-kilowatt unit which went into service in June at Baldwin and 167,000 kilowatts of gas turbine generator peaking capacity near strategic load centers. A second 600,000-kilowatt unit is currently under construction at Baldwin.

The cost of the company's construction program over the next five years is estimated at $600,000,000, of which approximately $330,000,000 is for electric generating facilities, $77,000,000 for gas facilities, and $245,000,000 for electric transmission and distribution facilities and other additions.

Approximately $100,000,000 will be spent during calendar year 1971. The company said it sees "good reasons for a more optimistic view of the future of our industry than that taken by some publicity-conscious officials and professional critics."

The year 1970 showed an increase in revenue of 7.3 percent from sales of electricity and 10.6 percent in sales of gas.

Total operating revenue increased 8.3 percent to $239,435,000. Net income was up 11.6 percent to $42,022,000, and earnings per share of common stock increased 9.2 percent to $2.89.

Wendell J. Kelley, president, and Allen Van Wyck, chairman of the board, said in the transmittal letter:

"We believe that remarkable progress, the fruit of previous planning and concern, has been made in the last year. We believe that this progress will accelerate in the years ahead.

"Our optimism is based upon confidence that we can and will accurately estimate future demand and can and will plan, finance, and build to meet it.

"Our optimism is based also upon the assumption that the public and government at all levels will realize that the job cannot be done if unreasonable restrictions on generation and transmission siting are placed on the industry, or if it is harassed as a public enemy."

The increases in electric generating capacity bring the total generating capability of Illinois Power Co. to 2,209,300 kilowatts.

J. E. McClain Completes Maintenance Seminar

John E. McClain, has successfully completed the 5-day Maintenance Seminar of Multi-Amp Institute in Cranford, N. J. Instruction consisted of lecture and workshop periods in the testing of electrical protective devices (motor overloads, relays, protective relays, molded case circuit breakers, low voltage power circuit breakers, and oil circuit breakers).

Mr. McClain is employed by the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers.

3 From Area Inducted; 21 Called in March

Three Granite City men were inducted into the Army Tuesday morning and the Selective Service board announced that 21 men, the highest number taken in more than a year, will be inducted from here in March.

Inducted this week were James Edward Raines, Ronald Eugene Tinker and Charles Edward Ringier, all of Granite City.

The Alton board inducted 21 men Tuesday morning and the Edwardsville board took 12 men.

A Selective Service spokesman said that in the March draft call lottery numbers over 104 are not to be inducted and those with numbers over 150 are not to be taken for physical examinations.

The 21 inductions from the Granite City board March 12 will be the highest number taken from the three Madison County offices. Alton will induct 14 men on that day and Edwardsville will take 17.

Physical examinations also will be given on the 12th and eight from Granite City, 16 from Alton and 10 from Edwardsville are to be called that day.

Earlier this month the Pentagon issued a March draft call for 17,000 young men. So far this year the total draft call has been 51,000, slightly more than the 50,500 quota in the first three months of 1970.

Cong. Price to Press For Public Works Legislation

Congressman Melvin Price, (D-East St. Louis), will testify before the House Public Works Committee in support of the accelerated public works legislation he is cosponsoring when hearings start Monday, March 15.

At a press conference last week, announcing the scheduling of the hearings, House Speaker Carl Albert, Majority Leader Hale Boggs, and Public Works Committee Chairman John Blatnik indicated the legislation was a priority item. Speaker Albert called for "its earliest possible consideration."

Congressman Price, a cosponsor, has contacted Chairman Blatnik about appearing before the Committee in support of the legislation. "The need for this legislation is evident," Congressman Price said. In the last two years, he noted, "when inflation has soared, unemployment has risen from 3.3% to 6% nationally — the gross national product declined in 1970 for the first time in twelve years.

—27% of the nation's industrial production capacity is idle — corporate profits have fallen 8% — weekly take home pay has decreased by 4% — housing production goals — failing 2.2 million units short.

The 24th District Democrat's legislation calls for 80 percent Federal grant-in-aid tailored to assist communities that: (a) have a firm plan for badly needed permanent public facilities, (b) are able to finance the local share of construction, (c) are ready to begin almost immediate construction, and (d) can guarantee that a high percentage of the construction cost will be for the public.

The goal is to make local areas more attractive to industry by building such facilities as sewer plants and municipal buildings without over burdening the local tax rate. He suggested $850 million to initiate the program. The bill is designed to assist economic development areas, major labor market areas and "pockets of poverty" that have a history of persistent unemployment reaching the level of 8.75 percent or higher. Similar legislation proposed previously successful in the past.

"At a time when claims for unemployment compensation benefits have risen from $2.35 billion in 1969, $3.3 billion in 1970, to an estimated $5.89 billion in 1971, a fifty percent increase in two years," Rep. Price reported, "our communities have compiled a $4.5 billion backlog in applications with federal agencies for water treatment plants, water and sewer systems, and medical and public health facilities.

The Illinois tax is tied directly to the federal code. McCarter said 1972 revenue deductions from the change would be at least $17 million.

While increasing investments in new plants and equipment and improving employment and income in Illinois, he said the new guidelines will "significantly" reduce state revenues for the corporate sector."

Master Plan for SIU Medical Campus OK'd

A master plan for Southern Illinois University's new Springfield medical campus has been approved by SIU's board of trustees.

The action paves the way to develop plans and specifications for the $10,320,000 tract which will make up a basic instructional center for SIU School of Medicine students.

First stage construction is targeted for completion in 1973, the date set for SIU's first class of medical students to arrive in Springfield for the clinical phase of their training. Undergraduate preparation will be at the Carbondale campus.

Nucleus of the mid-state medical campus will be Springfield Memorial and St. John's Hospitals of Springfield. The instructional facilities outlined to SIU trustees last week will lie on a seven-acre plot directly west of Springfield Memorial. SIU has an option to buy the land.

Schematic plans presented by Chicago Architect Harry Weese show a four-story square building surrounding a landscaped courtyard. One end will be opened for a future walkway connecting it with Memorial Hospital. At the opposite corner, another walkway would link it up with future stages of campus development.

First stage facilities ($2,700,000) will include a library and resource center, administrative offices, some service and technical support operations and a temporary classrooms and teaching laboratories for the first class in this summer.

Permanent classrooms, lecture rooms, laboratories, faculty offices and offices for continuing education programs for downstate physicians are included in the second stage, hoped to be ready in 1975. The Illinois Board of Higher Education has recommended a $7,560,000 second-stage construction budget to the present session of the Illinois legislature.

Ethics Not Only What is Right, But Something More--Price

The most severe law that can be invoked should be rigidly enforced against the willful violator of the public's trust, Congressman Melvin Price (D-East St. Louis) said in an address last week.

Congressman Price, chairman of the Congressional Committee on Standards of Official Conduct discussed provisions on public conduct and ethics at a meeting of the Fairview Heights city council.

The congressman told the meeting that "Ethics, in one sense of the word, means the same as morals. In government, however, it is not only what's right but something more. It must be something which contains a discipline. Today if political leaders infringe on the rights of their fellow men, they will not be allowed to go for their so-called reward in Heaven or some other 'hereafter' accounting. They face a much more immediate accountability and that is as it should be."

In a way the electorate does not approve of.

Then -- you may ask, what does a Code of Conduct seek to do? What exists between the disciplines of the law and the election?

"In general, when public decisions are influenced either consciously or subconsciously by the personal interests of the person making the decision -- these are conflicts-of-interest. At its worst it can be called bribery. At its most innocent, it can be completely unconscious. In any case it is a tremendously difficult matter to prove and therefore manage."

"Experience has pretty well shown that the most effective weapon against conflict of interest is public disclosure. It serves not only as a deterrent reminder to the decision maker but it also provides a kind of continuing audit by the public of the public's business."

closure" of all matters of interest to your citizens. The details of how to apply the principle will come as you work out your code.

Situations Differ

"I hesitate to be more specific on the content of a Code as the situations are so very different between city and Federal government problems, and between elected and appointed officers."

"I do, however, want to be very specific about one other factor -- enforcement."

"Once you have put together a workable set of principles -- specifically drawn to meet the unique needs of this community, provide for its rigid observance."

"I know this sounds simple but let me assure you it is not. Enforcement against elected people, particularly, is difficult, and no less so against appointed officers."

ees when there is no reason to believe there were bad intentions."

"Of course, the object is prevention, but the way to prevent is to have enforcement as a back-up. You must provide for enforcement and hope that you will never need it."

Water Heater Causes $3,000 Fire at Home

A faulty water heater in the laundry area caused $3,000 damage in a fire at the home of George R. Graf Jr., 1717 Bremen Ave., at 1:35 p.m. Monday.

Damage to the six-room frame house included $1,500 to the building and $1,500 to the contents. Firemen were at the scene an hour and 10 minutes.

Plan to Trim Cost, Time in Building Gets SIU Board OK

A plan to try to cut dollars and construction time from state college building projects has been endorsed by Southern Illinois University's board of trustees.

The board has committed SIU to a five-school pilot project for "experimentation on the design and construction of buildings" which has been urged by the Illinois Board of Higher Education.

The idea is to apply a cluster of modern management and systems control techniques to building construction from start to finish.

In SIU's case, the pilot project will be a Natural Resources Building, recommended for budgeting this year as part of the pilot package.

Varying Applications

The experiment would include three applications:

Fast Tracking—in which various stages of the buildings are put out for contract as soon as plans can be completed for them. Proponents say progressive contract awards through planning and construction avoid delays. Example: Foundation footings are put out for bids in early planning stages, so steel and other material can be ordered at no building-time cost to total project.

Systems Approach—Uses standardized components, units and complete package systems (like ceiling grids and wall panels) that repeat themselves throughout the building. Quality, cost and time controls can be applied uniformly throughout.

Construction Manager—An outside expert, experienced in construction, is hired to oversee and coordinate the whole project, from architect's office consideration.

The graduate degree in city and regional planning is proposed as an expansion of the Southwest campus concentration in urban geography. It will be part of the offerings of the earth sciences faculty in the Division of Social Sciences.

The bachelor's degree in sanitation technology was submitted as part of the programs of the Division of Science and Technology at Southwest.

Both programs have unique aspects. The master's in planning would require a two-year course of study or 72 credit hours. This is in keeping with recommendations by the American Institute of Planners.

The sanitation technology undergraduate program is one of the few programs in the country which would offer a bachelor's degree. The course work is designed to combine technical skills with academic knowledge geared to the total society.

For the master's degree in planning the curriculum proposes internships for students with metropolitan agencies. The program is expected to draw students from major fields such as biology, economics, engineering, geography, government and sociology, according to the supporting material presented to the trustees.

Proponents of both proposals have stated that existing faculty can meet the majority of the initial teaching needs for the degree programs.

Dance Exhibition

Area residents are invited to see the latest in fashions and contemporary square dance techniques Sunday in the Meridian Ballroom of the University Center on the Southern Illinois University campus at Southwest from 2 until 5 p.m.

The exhibition is sponsored by the League of Clubs and the SU Square-dancers with Art Galvin doing the calling.

Bus Windshield Broken

The windshield of a 40-passenger bus owned by Tri-Mor Bowl was broken by a billiard ball, it was reported at 6:35 p.m. Monday. Tony Sodi, manager, said the ball was missing from a rack in the building and had been taken by two men.

Weavers Association Plan March 4 Meeting

The newly-formed Lewis and Clark Weavers Association will hold an open meeting Thursday, March 4 at 10 a.m. at the Main Street Methodist Church, 1400 Main St. in Alton.

Mrs. Lucy Primm of St. Louis will speak about yarns used in handweaving. All area weavers and those interested in handweaving are invited. Organized officers for the Lewis and Clark Weavers Association are Mrs. Earl Besard, president, and Mrs. Donald Gillespie, secretary.

Intersection Mishap

An auto driven by Roger L. Romanic, Caseyville, and Harold J. Getz, 66 Venice Homes, Venice, collided at 5:10 p.m. Monday at Niedringhaus Avenue and Chestnut Street.
